

Working on "I am the nation"

Use a word processing program and write down the answers for the following questions:

1. Where was original purpose of the "poem"?
2. What is the "nightmare" O`Toole refers to?
3. Explain why "The dream, to an increasing extent, has fueled the nightmare" (l. 35)!
4. Translate the part of the text designated for you into good German! Use LEO and the OALD to find translations for the words you do not know. Use great care to find the adequate meaning! If you need proper German phrases, check the built-in Thesaurus in Word (Shift+F7). When you have finished, copy your part into the Word document "IrishTimes-Translation.doc" at the correct position (write down the line numbers for orientation).
